

Comforts, Warmth Without Weight

Heavy comforts are neither warm nor comfortable. Maish Laminated Cotton Down Comforts have the fluffy thickness and light weight of eiderdown and are absolutely pure. Buy one of these Comforts and sleep comfortable. Silkline and sateen coverings in attractive designs at $2.50, 3.00, 3.50 and 4.00.

Crib Blankets at $1.25 and 1.50, sateen coverings.

BLANKETS—Special values in 11-4 and 12-4 Blankets at $2.00, 2.50, 3.00 and 3.50, grey and white.

Full line of Blankets at 50c, 60c, 75c, 85c, 98c, $1.25, 1.50 up to 6.00 each.

PERRY & CAMP.

Telephone 9-4. 71 and 75 Main Street, Barre, Vt.

Dining Room Furniture

Latest Styles in Buffets and Sideboards

We have a particularly handsome collection of Buffets and Sideboards this season. Prices $20.00 up.

Our Showing of China Closets is Exceptional

These pieces are all high standard productions. Only the very best materials were employed in their making. Prices $13.50 up.

Dining Room Tables and Chairs

We are showing some exceptionally good values in Round Pedestal Dining Tables this Fall. Prices $13.50 up.

Square Top Five-leg Tables. Prices $6.00 up.

Quartered Oak Box Seat Chairs. Prices $2.25 up.

Bow Backs 68 cents, other styles 80 cents up.

A new and exclusive line of Portiers and Couch Covers just received.

B. W. HOOKER & CO., Barre, Vt.
CITY UNDERTAKERS

Improved Ambulance Service. Orders Promptly Attended To

TALK OF THE TOWN

New fancy perukes for waitings only 12½¢ at Veale & Knight's.

Owen McShane of Bristol visited friends in this city today.

Mrs. James J. Goodwin went to Boston to-day on the excursion.

Nice large bananas, 10 for 25 cents at the Divers Fruit company.

F. M. Andreani went to Burlington to-day on a business visit.

The best service possible is what men get at Miers' sanitary barber shop.

S. E. Brownell of Burlington was in the city to-day on a business visit.

James Rowan, sr., went to Rockland, Me., to-day for a visit with relatives.

Mrs. Barbara Wisheart went to Boston to-day for a week's visit with friends.

Cash paid for watches, diamonds, gold and silver jewelry. Burr, the Jeweler.

Cut flowers and floral designs at Youngson's, 7 Pearl street. Tel. 432-11.

See the white coat sweater at $1.50, Talmor Mills. Sold only at Vaughan's.

Mrs. Philip L. Ellis went to Littleton, N. H., today for a visit with relatives.

Bernard Manning left last night for a visit with relatives in Waltham, Mass.

The Bijou theatre opens to-morrow with talking pictures, the first in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Leclair left last night for a visit in New York and Boston.

Sweaters and golf jackets for the little fellows from the Frank McWhorter Co., $1.00 to $3.00.

Mrs. C. G. Bickford of Northfield visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Cone over Sunday.

Read Tassie Brothers' special bargain announcement on page 5 to-day. It is worth your while.

Miss M. M. Miller, who has been visiting friends in this city, went to New York last night.

Mrs. Holton of Pittsburg, Mass., and Mrs. Place of North Troy visited Mrs. James Cone last Saturday.

Regular 19c and 25c songs and instrumental short music, "Tony" will sell this week only for 10c a copy.

William Brown of Springfield, Mass., was the guest of his brother, Charles A. Brown, of Franklin street today.

The sewing circle of the Universalist church will meet with Mrs. S. D. Allen, of Franklin St., Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Special grape sale. Concord, 11 cents a basket. Delaware, two baskets for 25 cents. Niagara, 12 cents a basket. Divers Fruit company.

Clerks, attention. Regular meeting of local 241, R. C. L. P. A., in the R. of P. hall, Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock. W. M. Thayer, rec. sec.

Bennett-Moulton company, which ended a week's engagement at the opera house Saturday night, went to Northfield to-day, where they show this week.

Wood! Wood! Dry slab wood, $2.50 per run, delivered. Dry limb wood, $2.00 per run, delivered. Leave orders at 59 Washington street. Phone 138. A. W. Winch, Admr.

Floyd Holt, who has been employed as operator at the Bijou picture show, has finished work there and went to Montpelier today where he has a position at the Palace show.

Excellent steamers sailing near this date for continental points. If you wish the best voyage, secure your berth in ample time of "Tony" Giacchino, the Barre steamship ticket agent.

Mrs. E. L. Church left this noon for Quincy to visit her son, E. A. Church, who is a designer in the granite office of Mallene & Chalmers of Quincy. She will also visit her daughter, Mrs. E. H. Medcalf, of Boston.

Captain Buckins and Lieutenant McKelvie and comrades of the Montpelier corps will conduct the meeting at the Salvation Army hall to-morrow evening. These comrades are having splendid success at their corps and are very interesting officers.

The world's greatest child soprano, to be seen and heard at the Pavilion to-night, possessing a voice of wonderful power, range and quality. She is a wonder. The public should hear the marvellous voice of this child. It is worth double the price of admission. Her equal has never been heard in the city before.

The ladies of Clan Gordon closed their three evenings' fair at the Woodmen's hall Saturday evening with the largest attendance that they had during the entire fair. There was no program except dancing and that was enjoyed until a late hour. The sales were very successful and every article was disposed of without resorting to the usual method of auctioning.

Dreamland has a most excellent program to present to-day. "Pappa Passes" is an American Biograph adaptation of the famous masterpiece of that eminent English poet, Robert Browning. The greatest educational interest attaches to it. Another picture, "The Wheels of Justice," is a Solly drama of human interest dealing with every day life. The whole show is good.

"Vendetta" at the Comique. Too much praise can scarcely be given this realistic colored dramatic subject. The scenes are splendidly picturesque. The story is a strong one and ably presented. "The Scales of Justice" is an exceptionally strong and interesting dramatic subject, acted with much power, staged with fine effect. The pantomime work of the young girl is the most effective this capable actress has ever done. The entire picture reflects great credit on the director and the players.

Excelsior steamers sailing near this date for continental points. If you wish the best voyage, secure your berth in ample time of "Tony" Giacchino, the Barre steamship ticket agent.

Mrs. E. L. Church left this noon for Quincy to visit her son, E. A. Church, who is a designer in the granite office of Mallene & Chalmers of Quincy. She will also visit her daughter, Mrs. E. H. Medcalf, of Boston.

Captain Buckins and Lieutenant McKelvie and comrades of the Montpelier corps will conduct the meeting at the Salvation Army hall to-morrow evening. These comrades are having splendid success at their corps and are very interesting officers.

The world's greatest child soprano, to be seen and heard at the Pavilion to-night, possessing a voice of wonderful power, range and quality. She is a wonder. The public should hear the marvellous voice of this child. It is worth double the price of admission. Her equal has never been heard in the city before.

The ladies of Clan Gordon closed their three evenings' fair at the Woodmen's hall Saturday evening with the largest attendance that they had during the entire fair. There was no program except dancing and that was enjoyed until a late hour. The sales were very successful and every article was disposed of without resorting to the usual method of auctioning.

Dreamland has a most excellent program to present to-day. "Pappa Passes" is an American Biograph adaptation of the famous masterpiece of that eminent English poet, Robert Browning. The greatest educational interest attaches to it. Another picture, "The Wheels of Justice," is a Solly drama of human interest dealing with every day life. The whole show is good.

"Vendetta" at the Comique. Too much praise can scarcely be given this realistic colored dramatic subject. The scenes are splendidly picturesque. The story is a strong one and ably presented. "The Scales of Justice" is an exceptionally strong and interesting dramatic subject, acted with much power, staged with fine effect. The pantomime work of the young girl is the most effective this capable actress has ever done. The entire picture reflects great credit on the director and the players.

The world's greatest child soprano, to be seen and heard at the Pavilion to-night, possessing a voice of wonderful power, range and quality. She is a wonder. The public should hear the marvellous voice of this child. It is worth double the price of admission. Her equal has never been heard in the city before.

The ladies of Clan Gordon closed their three evenings' fair at the Woodmen's hall Saturday evening with the largest attendance that they had during the entire fair. There was no program except dancing and that was enjoyed until a late hour. The sales were very successful and every article was disposed of without resorting to the usual method of auctioning.

Dreamland has a most excellent program to present to-day. "Pappa Passes" is an American Biograph adaptation of the famous masterpiece of that eminent English poet, Robert Browning. The greatest educational interest attaches to it. Another picture, "The Wheels of Justice," is a Solly drama of human interest dealing with every day life. The whole show is good.

"Vendetta" at the Comique. Too much praise can scarcely be given this realistic colored dramatic subject. The scenes are splendidly picturesque. The story is a strong one and ably presented. "The Scales of Justice" is an exceptionally strong and interesting dramatic subject, acted with much power, staged with fine effect. The pantomime work of the young girl is the most effective this capable actress has ever done. The entire picture reflects great credit on the director and the players.

The world's greatest child soprano, to be seen and heard at the Pavilion to-night, possessing a voice of wonderful power, range and quality. She is a wonder. The public should hear the marvellous voice of this child. It is worth double the price of admission. Her equal has never been heard in the city before.

The ladies of Clan Gordon closed their three evenings' fair at the Woodmen's hall Saturday evening with the largest attendance that they had during the entire fair. There was no program except dancing and that was enjoyed until a late hour. The sales were very successful and every article was disposed of without resorting to the usual method of auctioning.

Dreamland has a most excellent program to present to-day. "Pappa Passes" is an American Biograph adaptation of the famous masterpiece of that eminent English poet, Robert Browning. The greatest educational interest attaches to it. Another picture, "The Wheels of Justice," is a Solly drama of human interest dealing with every day life. The whole show is good.

"Vendetta" at the Comique. Too much praise can scarcely be given this realistic colored dramatic subject. The scenes are splendidly picturesque. The story is a strong one and ably presented. "The Scales of Justice" is an exceptionally strong and interesting dramatic subject, acted with much power, staged with fine effect. The pantomime work of the young girl is the most effective this capable actress has ever done. The entire picture reflects great credit on the director and the players.

The world's greatest child soprano, to be seen and heard at the Pavilion to-night, possessing a voice of wonderful power, range and quality. She is a wonder. The public should hear the marvellous voice of this child. It is worth double the price of admission. Her equal has never been heard in the city before.

The ladies of Clan Gordon closed their three evenings' fair at the Woodmen's hall Saturday evening with the largest attendance that they had during the entire fair. There was no program except dancing and that was enjoyed until a late hour. The sales were very successful and every article was disposed of without resorting to the usual method of auctioning.

Dreamland has a most excellent program to present to-day. "Pappa Passes" is an American Biograph adaptation of the famous masterpiece of that eminent English poet, Robert Browning. The greatest educational interest attaches to it. Another picture, "The Wheels of Justice," is a Solly drama of human interest dealing with every day life. The whole show is good.

"Vendetta" at the Comique. Too much praise can scarcely be given this realistic colored dramatic subject. The scenes are splendidly picturesque. The story is a strong one and ably presented. "The Scales of Justice" is an exceptionally strong and interesting dramatic subject, acted with much power, staged with fine effect. The pantomime work of the young girl is the most effective this capable actress has ever done. The entire picture reflects great credit on the director and the players.

The world's greatest child soprano, to be seen and heard at the Pavilion to-night, possessing a voice of wonderful power, range and quality. She is a wonder. The public should hear the marvellous voice of this child. It is worth double the price of admission. Her equal has never been heard in the city before.

The ladies of Clan Gordon closed their three evenings' fair at the Woodmen's hall Saturday evening with the largest attendance that they had during the entire fair. There was no program except dancing and that was enjoyed until a late hour. The sales were very successful and every article was disposed of without resorting to the usual method of auctioning.

Dreamland has a most excellent program to present to-day. "Pappa Passes" is an American Biograph adaptation of the famous masterpiece of that eminent English poet, Robert Browning. The greatest educational interest attaches to it. Another picture, "The Wheels of Justice," is a Solly drama of human interest dealing with every day life. The whole show is good.

"Vendetta" at the Comique. Too much praise can scarcely be given this realistic colored dramatic subject. The scenes are splendidly picturesque. The story is a strong one and ably presented. "The Scales of Justice" is an exceptionally strong and interesting dramatic subject, acted with much power, staged with fine effect. The pantomime work of the young girl is the most effective this capable actress has ever done. The entire picture reflects great credit on the director and the players.

The world's greatest child soprano, to be seen and heard at the Pavilion to-night, possessing a voice of wonderful power, range and quality. She is a wonder. The public should hear the marvellous voice of this child. It is worth double the price of admission. Her equal has never been heard in the city before.

The ladies of Clan Gordon closed their three evenings' fair at the Woodmen's hall Saturday evening with the largest attendance that they had during the entire fair. There was no program except dancing and that was enjoyed until a late hour. The sales were very successful and every article was disposed of without resorting to the usual method of auctioning.

Dreamland has a most excellent program to present to-day. "Pappa Passes" is an American Biograph adaptation of the famous masterpiece of that eminent English poet, Robert Browning. The greatest educational interest attaches to it. Another picture, "The Wheels of Justice," is a Solly drama of human interest dealing with every day life. The whole show is good.

"Vendetta" at the Comique. Too much praise can scarcely be given this realistic colored dramatic subject. The scenes are splendidly picturesque. The story is a strong one and ably presented. "The Scales of Justice" is an exceptionally strong and interesting dramatic subject, acted with much power, staged with fine effect. The pantomime work of the young girl is the most effective this capable actress has ever done. The entire picture reflects great credit on the director and the players.

The world's greatest child soprano, to be seen and heard at the Pavilion to-night, possessing a voice of wonderful power, range and quality. She is a wonder. The public should hear the marvellous voice of this child. It is worth double the price of admission. Her equal has never been heard in the city before.

The ladies of Clan Gordon closed their three evenings' fair at the Woodmen's hall Saturday evening with the largest attendance that they had during the entire fair. There was no program except dancing and that was enjoyed until a late hour. The sales were very successful and every article was disposed of without resorting to the usual method of auctioning.

Dreamland has a most excellent program to present to-day. "Pappa Passes" is an American Biograph adaptation of the famous masterpiece of that eminent English poet, Robert Browning. The greatest educational interest attaches to it. Another picture, "The Wheels of Justice," is a Solly drama of human interest dealing with every day life. The whole show is good.

"Vendetta" at the Comique. Too much praise can scarcely be given this realistic colored dramatic subject. The scenes are splendidly picturesque. The story is a strong one and ably presented. "The Scales of Justice" is an exceptionally strong and interesting dramatic subject, acted with much power, staged with fine effect. The pantomime work of the young girl is the most effective this capable actress has ever done. The entire picture reflects great credit on the director and the players.

The world's greatest child soprano, to be seen and heard at the Pavilion to-night, possessing a voice of wonderful power, range and quality. She is a wonder. The public should hear the marvellous voice of this child. It is worth double the price of admission. Her equal has never been heard in the city before.

The ladies of Clan Gordon closed their three evenings' fair at the Woodmen's hall Saturday evening with the largest attendance that they had during the entire fair. There was no program except dancing and that was enjoyed until a late hour. The sales were very successful and every article was disposed of without resorting to the usual method of auctioning.

Dreamland has a most excellent program to present to-day. "Pappa Passes" is an American Biograph adaptation of the famous masterpiece of that eminent English poet, Robert Browning. The greatest educational interest attaches to it. Another picture, "The Wheels of Justice," is a Solly drama of human interest dealing with every day life. The whole show is good.

"Vendetta" at the Comique. Too much praise can scarcely be given this realistic colored dramatic subject. The scenes are splendidly picturesque. The story is a strong one and ably presented. "The Scales of Justice" is an exceptionally strong and interesting dramatic subject, acted with much power, staged with fine effect. The pantomime work of the young girl is the most effective this capable actress has ever done. The entire picture reflects great credit on the director and the players.

The world's greatest child soprano, to be seen and heard at the Pavilion to-night, possessing a voice of wonderful power, range and quality. She is a wonder. The public should hear the marvellous voice of this child. It is worth double the price of admission. Her equal has never been heard in the city before.

The ladies of Clan Gordon closed their three evenings' fair at the Woodmen's hall Saturday evening with the largest attendance that they had during the entire fair. There was no program except dancing and that was enjoyed until a late hour. The sales were very successful and every article was disposed of without resorting to the usual method of auctioning.

Dreamland has a most excellent program to present to-day. "Pappa Passes" is an American Biograph adaptation of the famous masterpiece of that eminent English poet, Robert Browning. The greatest educational interest attaches to it. Another picture, "The Wheels of Justice," is a Solly drama of human interest dealing with every day life. The whole show is good.

"Vendetta" at the Comique. Too much praise can scarcely be given this realistic colored dramatic subject. The scenes are splendidly picturesque. The story is a strong one and ably presented. "The Scales of Justice" is an exceptionally strong and interesting dramatic subject, acted with much power, staged with fine effect. The pantomime work of the young girl is the most effective this capable actress has ever done. The entire picture reflects great credit on the director and the players.

The world's greatest child soprano, to be seen and heard at the Pavilion to-night, possessing a voice of wonderful power, range and quality. She is a wonder. The public should hear the marvellous voice of this child. It is worth double the price of admission. Her equal has never been heard in the city before.

The ladies of Clan Gordon closed their three evenings' fair at the Woodmen's hall Saturday evening with the largest attendance that they had during the entire fair. There was no program except dancing and that was enjoyed until a late hour. The sales were very successful and every article was disposed of without resorting to the usual method of auctioning.

TALK OF THE TOWN

Abbott has just received his fall line of children's wool dresses.

Sale of "silent cloth" at Perry's for your dining-room table.

Mrs. C. Ronce went to Quincy, Mass., to-day for a visit with relatives.

New lot of Lowney's chocolates, fresh and fine, just arrived at "Tony's."

Antony Bianchi of Hanover, N. H., visited friends in the city yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Smith of Calais visited their sister, Mrs. Ellen K. Parks, 107 Prospect street, over Sunday.

Miss Hathaway will do sewing at home or out by the day. Children's work a specialty. 3 Academy street.

Mrs. George Robertson and daughter took a carriage drive to Waterbury yesterday and will spend a few days with relatives.

There will be a meeting of the Good Templars club Wednesday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Universalist church for the election of officers.

Special meeting of the Barre Firemen's club will be held Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock at the central fire station. Important business. All are requested to be present.

Small furnished tenement at 28 West street for man and wife; also seven-room cottage with barn and garden at 6 Cherry street, city. Inquire of C. D. Carpenter, 28 West street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Farnham and family, with George Davis of Quaker Willow farm as their guest, took an automobile trip to Burlington yesterday, where they visited Mrs. Farnham's aunt, Mrs. Anna S. Robinson, widow of the late Rowland Robinson, Vermont's blind author. Mr. Davis, who is a Quaker, had not traveled that road for a number of years. He stated that 40 years ago he used to attend the Quaker meetings with his parents, at Starksboro, Vt. He could see great changes along the road and told of many interesting places which had been changed, one being the old toll gate, which was placed at the opening of the turnpike road in Middlesex, and where ten cents toll was charged to pass through. Mr. Davis is 75 years of age and although very fond of horses admits that the only way to travel on the road now is by the automobile. Miss Rachel Robinson, daughter of the late Rowland Robinson, who graduated from Goddard seminary, is now illustrating for the Atlantic Monthly and other magazines. She is now in New York exhibiting her work.

Small furnished tenement at 28 West street for man and wife; also seven-room cottage with barn and garden at 6 Cherry street, city. Inquire of C. D. Carpenter, 28 West street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Farnham and family, with George Davis of Quaker Willow farm as their guest, took an automobile trip to Burlington yesterday, where they visited Mrs. Farnham's aunt, Mrs. Anna S. Robinson, widow of the late Rowland Robinson, Vermont's blind author. Mr. Davis, who is a Quaker, had not traveled that road for a number of years. He stated that 40 years ago he used to attend the Quaker meetings with his parents, at Starksboro, Vt. He could see great changes along the road and told of many interesting places which had been changed, one being the old toll gate, which was placed at the opening of the turnpike road in Middlesex, and where ten cents toll was charged to pass through. Mr. Davis is 75 years of age and although very fond of horses admits that the only way to travel on the road now is by the automobile. Miss Rachel Robinson, daughter of the late Rowland Robinson, who graduated from Goddard seminary, is now illustrating for the Atlantic Monthly and other magazines. She is now in New York exhibiting her work.

Small furnished tenement at 28 West street for man and wife; also seven-room cottage with barn and garden at 6 Cherry street, city. Inquire of C. D. Carpenter, 28 West street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Farnham and family, with George Davis of Quaker Willow farm as their guest, took an automobile trip to Burlington yesterday, where they visited Mrs. Farnham's aunt, Mrs. Anna S. Robinson, widow of the late Rowland Robinson, Vermont's blind author. Mr. Davis, who is a Quaker, had not traveled that road for a number of years. He stated that 40 years ago he used to attend the Quaker meetings with his parents, at Starksboro, Vt. He could see great changes along the road and told of many interesting places which had been changed, one being the old toll gate, which was placed at the opening of the turnpike road in Middlesex, and where ten cents toll was charged to pass through. Mr. Davis is 75 years of age and although very fond of horses admits that the only way to travel on the road now is by the automobile. Miss Rachel Robinson, daughter of the late Rowland Robinson, who graduated from Goddard seminary, is now illustrating for the Atlantic Monthly and other magazines. She is now in New York exhibiting her work.

Small furnished tenement at 28 West street for man and wife; also seven-room cottage with barn and garden at 6 Cherry street, city. Inquire of C. D. Carpenter, 28 West street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Farnham and family, with George Davis of Quaker Willow farm as their guest, took an automobile trip to Burlington yesterday, where they visited Mrs. Farnham's aunt, Mrs. Anna S. Robinson, widow of the late Rowland Robinson, Vermont's blind author. Mr. Davis, who is a Quaker, had not traveled that road for a number of years. He stated that 40 years ago he used to attend the Quaker meetings with his parents, at Starksboro, Vt. He could see great changes along the road and told of many interesting places which had been changed, one being the old toll gate, which was placed at the opening of the turnpike road in Middlesex, and where ten cents toll was charged to pass through. Mr. Davis is 75 years of age and although very fond of horses admits that the only way to travel on the road now is by the automobile. Miss Rachel Robinson, daughter of the late Rowland Robinson, who graduated from Goddard seminary, is now illustrating for the Atlantic Monthly and other magazines. She is now in New York exhibiting her work.

Small furnished tenement at 28 West street for man and wife; also seven-room cottage with barn and garden at 6 Cherry street, city. Inquire of C. D. Carpenter, 28 West street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Farnham and family, with George Davis of Quaker Willow farm as their guest, took an automobile trip to Burlington yesterday, where they visited Mrs. Farnham's aunt, Mrs. Anna S. Robinson, widow of the late Rowland Robinson, Vermont's blind author. Mr. Davis, who is a Quaker, had not traveled that road for a number of years. He stated that 40 years ago he used to attend the Quaker meetings with his parents, at Starksboro, Vt. He could see great changes along the road and told of many interesting places which had been changed, one being the old toll gate, which was placed at the opening of the turnpike road in Middlesex, and where ten cents toll was charged to pass through. Mr. Davis is 75 years of age and although very fond of horses admits that the only way to travel on the road now is by the automobile. Miss Rachel Robinson, daughter of the late Rowland Robinson, who graduated from Goddard seminary, is now illustrating for the Atlantic Monthly and other magazines. She is now in New York exhibiting her work.

Small furnished tenement at 28 West street for man and wife; also seven-room cottage with barn and garden at 6 Cherry street, city. Inquire of C. D. Carpenter, 28 West street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Farnham and family, with George Davis of Quaker Willow farm as their guest, took an automobile trip to Burlington yesterday, where they visited Mrs. Farnham's aunt, Mrs. Anna S. Robinson, widow of the late Rowland Robinson, Vermont's blind author. Mr. Davis, who is a Quaker, had not traveled that road for a number of years. He stated that 40 years ago he used to attend the Quaker meetings with his parents, at Starksboro, Vt. He could see great changes along the road and told of many interesting places which had been changed, one being the old toll gate, which was placed at the opening of the turnpike road in Middlesex, and where ten cents toll was charged to pass through. Mr. Davis is 75 years of age and although very fond of horses admits that the only way to travel on the road now is by the automobile. Miss Rachel Robinson, daughter of the late Rowland Robinson, who graduated from Goddard seminary, is now illustrating for the Atlantic Monthly and other magazines. She is now in New York exhibiting her work.

Small furnished tenement at 28 West street for man and wife; also seven-room cottage with barn and garden at 6 Cherry street, city. Inquire of C. D. Carpenter, 28 West street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Farnham and family, with George Davis of Quaker Willow farm as their guest, took an automobile trip to Burlington yesterday, where they visited Mrs. Farnham's aunt, Mrs. Anna S. Robinson, widow of the late Rowland Robinson, Vermont's blind author. Mr. Davis, who is a Quaker, had not traveled that road for a number of years. He stated that 40 years ago he used to attend the Quaker meetings with his parents, at Starksboro, Vt. He could see great changes along the road and told of many interesting places which had been changed, one being the old toll gate, which was placed at the opening of the turnpike road in Middlesex, and where ten cents toll was charged to pass through. Mr. Davis is 75 years of age and although very fond of horses admits that the only way to travel on the road now is by the automobile. Miss Rachel Robinson, daughter of the late Rowland Robinson, who graduated from Goddard seminary, is now illustrating for the Atlantic Monthly and other magazines. She is now in New York exhibiting her work.

Small furnished tenement at 28 West street for man and wife; also seven-room cottage with barn and garden at 6 Cherry street, city. Inquire of C. D. Carpenter, 28 West street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Farnham and family, with George Davis of Quaker Willow farm as their guest, took an automobile trip to Burlington yesterday, where they visited Mrs. Farnham's aunt, Mrs. Anna S. Robinson, widow of the late Rowland Robinson, Vermont's blind author. Mr. Davis, who is a Quaker, had not traveled that road for a number of years. He stated that 40 years ago he used to attend the Quaker meetings with his parents, at Starksboro, Vt. He could see great changes along the road and told of many interesting places which had been changed, one being the old toll gate, which was placed at the opening of the turnpike road in Middlesex, and where ten cents toll was charged to pass through. Mr. Davis is 75 years of age and although very fond of horses admits that the only way to travel on the road now is by the automobile. Miss Rachel Robinson, daughter of the late Rowland Robinson, who graduated from Goddard seminary, is now illustrating for the Atlantic Monthly and other magazines. She is now in New York exhibiting her work.

Small furnished tenement at 28 West street for man and wife; also seven-room cottage with barn and garden at 6 Cherry street, city. Inquire of C. D. Carpenter, 28 West street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Farnham and family, with George Davis of Quaker Willow farm as their guest, took an automobile trip to Burlington yesterday, where they visited Mrs. Farnham's aunt, Mrs. Anna S. Robinson, widow of the late Rowland Robinson, Vermont's blind author. Mr. Davis, who is a Quaker, had not traveled that road for a number of years. He stated that 40 years ago he used to attend the Quaker meetings with his parents, at Starksboro, Vt. He could see great changes along the road and told of many interesting places which had been changed, one being the old toll gate, which was placed at the opening of the turnpike road in Middlesex, and where ten cents toll was charged to pass through. Mr. Davis is 75 years of age and although very fond of horses admits that the only way to travel on the road now is by the automobile. Miss Rachel Robinson, daughter of the late Rowland Robinson, who graduated from Goddard seminary, is now illustrating for the Atlantic Monthly and other magazines. She is now in New York exhibiting her work.

Small furnished tenement at 28 West street for man and wife; also seven-room cottage with barn and garden at 6 Cherry street, city. Inquire of C. D. Carpenter, 28 West street.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Farnham and family, with George Davis of Quaker Willow farm as their guest, took an automobile trip to Burlington yesterday, where they visited Mrs. Farnham's aunt, Mrs. Anna S. Robinson, widow of the late Rowland Robinson, Vermont's blind author. Mr. Davis, who is a Quaker, had not traveled that road for a number of years. He stated that 40 years ago he used to attend the Quaker meetings with his parents, at St